Summary:

Deputies responded to a Welfare Check (suicidal female) at the decedent's residence based on a call from Health & Human Services. Deputies arrived and the decedent threatened to shoot officers if they approached her property. The decedent displayed a handgun, continued to threaten to shoot officers, threatened suicide, and barricaded herself in her residence. The HROU (Harris County High Risk Operations) Unit and negotiators were dispatched. The decedent refused to exit her residence and continued to demand all officers leave her property. Hours later, the decedent moved the window blinds on a back window and pointed a handgun towards deputies. The decedent raised the barrel of her handgun at an HROU deputy, and the deputy discharged one round. The decedent was struck in the head and was pronounced deceased by EMS personnel.
