Summary:

On September 14, 2022 at approximately 3:15pm, Frisco PD Officers were dispatched to a car dealership at 9640 State Highway 121 in Frisco, Collin County, Texas regarding a suspect attempting to use fraudulent identifying information to purchase a vehicle. Officers attempted to detain the suspect, Genesis Hicks, and he immediately ran from them. Officers pursued the suspect into a parking lot and gave verbal commands to stop and warned him he would be tased if he failed to comply. The suspect kept running and an officer deployed his taser, but it did not make full contact and was ineffective. A second officer deployed his taser, which led to the suspect falling and hitting his head on the ground. Officers placed the suspect into handcuffs, sat him upright, and immediately called for an ambulance.

The suspect was transported by Frisco Fire Department to a nearby hospital to undergo treatment for his injury. On September 29, 2022, after continuous care at Baylor McKinney, the suspect died.
