Summary:

On Wednesday, May 18, 2022, at 1946 hours, officers were dispatched to an Auto Theft at 11131 Lera Rd., where they met with a female witness stating that her boyfriend Deven D. Nnawuchi began acting awkward while they were in her vehicle. She stated that the suspect repeatedly pointed a pistol at her daughters before kicking them all out of her 2008 Chevrolet Tahoe. She stated that the suspect fled the location and she requested a police report. While Officers were collecting information to document the Auto Theft, the suspect returned to the location driving the witnesses vehicle.

Once the suspect observed Officers on scene, he fled the location. A description for the suspect's vehicle was General Broadcasted to Officers in the surrounding area. An Officer located the suspect vehicle driving north at 11100 Cheeves Drive. The suspect accelerated his vehicle running head on into an Officers marked patrol vehicle causing severe front end damage to the patrol vehicle and the 2008 vehicle causing severe front end damage to the patrol vehicle and the 2008 black Chevrolet Tahoe. The suspect continued ramming the officer's vehicle back. The Officer placed his vehicle in reverse to create distance from the suspect. The suspect drove his vehicle into the yard of a neighboring house located at the intersection. The suspect exited his vehicle discharging his firearm at the officer. An additional unit arriving on scene discharged his weapon at the suspect after the suspect pointed a firearm in his direction.

The suspect attempted to flee the location running west down Heath St. pointing the pistol in the officers direction and refusing to comply with commands to drop the pistol. Officers discharged their firearms striking the suspect. The suspect was taken into custody. Officer provided emergency medical service to the suspect. The suspect was transported to Ben Taub Hospital but later died from his wounds. the initial officer was transported to Memorial TMC and treated for minor lacerations and possible internal. injuries and later released.
