Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On 03/03/2024, Houston Police Officers responded to a robbery located at the 3300 block of W. Fuqua. Upon arriving, the responding officers were notified the suspect was armed with a pistol, verbally threatening multiple patrons a local corner store, and injured one patron with the weapon. The suspect proceeded to take a bottle of wine from inside the corner store while continuing to brandish his firearm and left the store before the officer arrived. While at the store, officers received an updated location of the suspect, who was last seen in the area of Allover Street.

Officers drove to the updated location and made contact with the suspect. The suspect was sitting on a bench in from of the residence, holding a firearm. Officers attempted to persuade the suspect to release the firearm and get him to comply with the verbal commands that the officers were giving. The suspect refused to comply with the commands and began walking towards the officers with the firearm in his hand. The suspect then began to raise the firearm up in the direction of the officers. The officers then discharged their firearms, striking the suspect. First aid was administered to the Houston Fire Department. to the suspect, but he succumbed to his wounds and was pronounced deceased on the scene by the Houston Fire Department. No Houston Police Officers were injured in this incident.
