Summary:

On Monday, March 9, 2026, officers employed by the Texas Attorney General's Office, Texas Department of Public Safety, and Harris County Precinct 7 Constables Officer were at a residence located at the 6003 Belarbor Street, Houston Texas to serve a warrant.

Upon the officers' arrival, they announced themselves and indicated their intention to take the suspect into custody. Instead of complying with the officers' instructions, the suspect armed himself with a shotgun and two handguns. The officers attempted to talk to the suspect into a peaceful surrender, but the suspect told the officers he was "Jesus" and they would have to shoot and kill him. The officers moved to a position of cover and eventually requested the Houston Police Department's Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) unit.

Several hours later, the suspect opened the front door of the residence, pointed a shotgun in the direction of officers securing the perimeter, and a SWAT officer, fearing for the safety of those officers, fired a shot at the suspect. The suspect retreated inside the residence and fired at least one shot at the SWAT officer. The SWAT officer returned fire and struck the ssupect. The suspect succumbed to his injuries and was declared deceased at the scene by the Houston Fire Department at 1246 hrs. No officers were injured during the incident. The primary cause of death was determined to be due to multiple gunshot wounds, and the manner of death was determined to be homicide.
